

FACT SHEET

HIGHER DIPLOMA IN INTERNATIONAL HOTEL MANAGEMENT

Program designed for students committed to qualify and complete a Bachelor Degree within 3 years. The 2 years at Lenk will be very demanding, requiring focus, dedication to studies and additional applications—often in lieu of leisure time. This, to ensure high marks for a successful 3d and final year at one of our partner universities.

Intakes: August and March Duration: 2 years (4 semesters) Taught semesters: 2 Number of Weeks per Semester: 18 Internships: 2 (5 to 7 months)	Age: 17 and above Qualification: High School Diploma, A- or O-Level or equivalent local certificate, vocational school diploma English level: IELTS 5 or equivalent
---	---

Progression and Accreditation: This course is part of the managed progression of SHML courses towards the Bachelor at one of our partner universities. Qualification for progression to Universities' final year depends on SHML Academic Committee, based on the following criteria: a) >80% average SHML results of years 1 & 2; b) demonstrated contribution to Capstone exercise; c) demonstrated competence with Research Methods; d) English IELTS >6.

Course Program:

Four semesters, two in College (Semesters 1 & 3) and two internships Semesters (2 & 4) either in Switzerland or with partner International Hotel companies:

Academic Semester 1: Food Service Operations: F&B outlets service, Banqueting Operations, Wine and Bar, Food Production Theory and Practice, Stewarding, F&B Human Resources, F&B Sales and Marketing, F&B Control, Housekeeping Operation, Business English (IELTS 4 level), Basic German, Computer Office applications.

Internship Semester 2: This first internship (five to seven months) is planned to suit individual needs, commonly within F&B service operations (restaurants, bars, fast food, banqueting operations).

Academic Semester 3: Management of: F&B, Banqueting, Rooms Division, Sales and Marketing, Supervision, Human Resources, Managerial Accounting, Engineering/Maintenance/Energy, Research Methods, Hospitality Business Enterprise (Capstone), Professional English writing, Basic German language, Information technology.

Internship Semester 4: This second internship (five to seven months) is planned to take place within the Rooms Division environment, including Housekeeping and Front Office front-of-the-house operations.

Fees:

Semester 1 Fees – CHF 29'725.-

Semester 3 Fees – CHF 29'725.-

Fees include (for the duration of the semester only): accommodation in twin sharing double room (single supplement is CHF 2'500.- per semester), full board, health, accident and private liability insurance, books & materials and uniforms & tool on loan, residence permit but exclude travel and visa costs.

Potential monthly earnings during internship: CHF 2'150.- gross per month (in Switzerland only).

For detailed information about SHML, Enrolment, Travel, Visa, Admissions, Academic programs, Scholarships, Life at SHML, News and Events and online contacts please refer to www.shml.ch

Certificates and Diploma:

Upon successfully completing Academic Semester 1 and 1st Internship, students are awarded:

Certificate in Hotel Operations / F&B and related Subjects-

At the end of Semester 2 and 2nd Internship students are awarded:

Higher Diploma in International Hotel Management